

YOU SHOW ME LIGHT

Even sleep won't give me rest, can't lay down my burden.
Weary of this weight, weight, weight (I wait)

Arms out reaching in the dark, space is all I'm feelin'
Can not find my way, way, way (my way)

At times...

Darkness will break, stars will appear,
You show me light.

At times...

Sparks light my way, through prism tears,
You show me light.

I am trying to be strong, stronger than I'm feelin'
"Stand up tall" or so they tell me

At times...

Darkness will break, stars will appear,
You show me light.

At times...

Sparks light my way, through prism tears,
You show me light.
You show me light!

You show me light!
You show me light!
You show me light!
You show me light!
